

KAP Group Expands with Two New Project Managers

Reno, NV — KAP Group (KAP) is pleased to announce the addition of two new Project Managers – Christina Anzel and Emily Vavrichek. “We are very pleased with the addition of Christina and Emily, each of whom brings extensive expertise in the private equity and/or hedge fund industries. We believe that their perspective will be very additive to our real estate clients and will allow us to further expand into the private equity and hedge fund marketplaces.” said Jennifer Hutter, KAP’s Co-Founder and CEO.

Christina Anzel—Prior to joining KAP, Christina was a Managing Director, Head of Product Management and Investor Relations at Ares Management, L.P., a global alternative asset manager with approximately $100 billion in assets under management. Prior to joining Ares in January 2015, Christina worked at Energy Investors Funds (EIF) from 2008 to 2014 as Vice President of the Investor Relations and Marketing group. At both Ares and EIF, Christina served as the primary contact for over 100 limited partners, managing the team responsible for all ongoing client relationships and communications, material generation, and marketing initiatives. At EIF, Christina was instrumental in raising approximately $950 million from existing limited partners for co-investment opportunities and facilitating a $1.7 billion dollar fundraise. Prior to joining EIF, Christina was a Finance Associate in the San Francisco office of Latham & Watkins LLP. She began her legal career as an Associate in the Global Project Finance Department at Milbank Tweed Hadley and McCloy LLP in New York City. Christina received a J.D. and LL.M. in International and Comparative Law from Duke University School of Law, where she was Editor-in-Chief of the Duke Journal of Comparative and International Law. She received her B.A. in English Literature from Haverford College.

Emily Vavrichek—Prior to joining KAP, Emily was Head of Investor Relations and Marketing at KPS Capital Partners LP, a private equity firm with approximately $5.5 billion of capital under management focused on transforming manufacturing and industrial businesses. During her time at KPS, Emily was responsible for fundraising, investor relations, and managing the firm’s marketing and communications efforts. Prior to joining KPS, Emily was a Senior Associate at Atlantic-Pacific Capital and an Associate in the Private Fund Group at Credit Suisse. During her time at Atlantic-Pacific Capital and Credit Suisse, Emily advised and prepared private equity managers through each stage of the capital raising process. She worked on 15 global private equity fundraisings, representing approximately $15 billion in equity capital raised. Emily graduated from Duke University with a Bachelor of Science in Economics.
